

Scrooge Monologue Part 1

I'd like to be left alone. I don't make merry at Christmas. I can't afford to make idle people merry.

Gentlemen. Are there no prisons? Are there no workhouses

If the poor have to eat, let them beg upon the street

Or apply at the workhouse door

If they refuse to earn, then let them learn what a prison's for

I say let them die and decrease the excess population. Picking a Man's pocket every 25th of December.

I don't need to know of your family or your work, I suggest Tiny Tim drink tea.

Give him tea, give him stew, it has nothing to do with me.

Here, (tosses Cratchit a coin, then snatches it back). But be sure to come in early the next day.

Part 2

Boy, what day is this? Christmas Day? Then I haven't missed it~ The Spirits have done it all in one night~. They can do anything they like! Of course, they can! Of course they can!

I will live in the past, present and the future. The Spirits of all three will strive within me. Oh, Jacob Marley, heaven and Christmas time be praised for this! I don't know what to do! I am as light as a feather. I am as happy as an angel. I am as merry as a schoolboy. I am as giddy as a drunken man. Boy, do you know the poulterers?

Yes, Good! An intelligent boy! A remarkable boy! Do you know whether they've sold that prize turkey?

Yes, that one. What a delightful boy! It's a pleasure to talk to you! Yes, the one as big as you!

How much is it? A sovereign? Well, here are two sovereigns. Go buy it for me and K...K...K...K..

KEEP THE CHANGE! Merry Christmas
