

Audition Materials – Pawnee Bill

Part 1

Bill, you big bandit, it's great to see you!
You fellas know Chief Sitting Bull, the man who brought down General George Custer.

I was hoping you'd extend me the professional courtesy of letting me take a gander at that new phe-nom whose picture you've plastered all over town. Fine, fine, come along Chief!

Part 2

It so happens, Frank, this party is our last chance. It's time you heard the truth. We're broke. Yes, we are playing Madison Garden but every time we take in a buck this little man with a badge and big black bag walks in and scoops it up – We need Buffalo Bill, Frank. Their show made a fortune on their European tour. I'm trying to promote a merger.

Part 3

You know, Bill, seeing you just gave me one helluva crazy idea!
Die you ever think what a terrific thing it would be if we were to combine our two shows? Why don't we go someplace where we can have a real drink and talk it over?
